

BIG GREEN

Wednesday 7th September 2022

Our Club functions are Friday night with the excitement of our K Spades draw which is at $1,600 also we have Kev's Friday raffle draw with several prizes. On Friday nights we have counter teas also we have Saturday night counter teas.

On Wednesday night we have Bingo eyes down 7pm and a counter meal. Wednesday we have Social bowls starting at 12 noon place your name on the sheet in the locker room so Vern knows you want a game.

We are having skills on a Tuesday for all members starting at 4pm. Our community Bowls is starting on Tuesday 17th January it is run by Wally Smith and his crew, get your Friends to make up teams any one can play it's a fun night starting at 6pm.

Mens and Ladies sections have events coming up sheets will go up in the locker rooms. Put your names down for Mid-week and Saturday pennant. You now have your Blue Books so you can check out what's coming up in events and you can enter them. We thank Plug-a-Long for the printing of our Blue Book. So members please use your Blue Book. Our sponsor are at the side so members please support them.

Surrounds.

We urgently need a couple of men to help with the surrounds on a Wednesday. If you can help, see Peter Policha.

Thank you to the ladies who helped at the funeral on Thursday Adrienne, Sue, Helen, Carmel, Kath, Trudy, Liz.

Club Opening Day

We had 50 members come along and play bowls and have a great meal together. Sharon Gibson presented 10 Super Veterans badges to Peggy Reed, Alan Luck, Keith Evans, Jim Cuthbertson, Spencer Goss, Bev Luck, Grant Cowley, Graham Cocks, Adrienne Birchall, John Backman.

Its was nice to connect with all our bowling friends after a long winter.

The Club has purchased 50 new chairs for the function room The old chairs are selling for $10 each they are stackable chairs very handy when you have extra visitors.
